

Hot and Cold Places

Key Vocabulary:

North Pole	The North Pole is the northernmost place on Earth. When at the North Pole all directions point south.
South Pole	The South Pole is the southernmost place on Earth. When at the South Pole all directions point north.
Equator	An imaginary line around the centre of the Earth. It is very hot at the Equator. It divides the Earth into the north and south hemispheres.
Hemi-sphere	It is half the Earth divided into north and south by the equator. Britain is in the northern hemisphere.
Compass	A compass is tool for finding direction.

Sticky Knowledge facts:

- ♦ There are seven continents and five oceans which make up our earth.
- ♦ The equator marks the difference between the two parts of the earth, the southern hemisphere and the northern hemisphere.
- ♦ Antarctica is the coldest, windiest and driest continent on earth.
- ♦ Animals who live in cold countries have special adaptations that keep them warm. Penguins stay warm because of
- ♦ In the UK each year has 4 seasons Spring, summer, autumn and winter and each season last 3 months.

There are seven continents and five oceans which make up our earth.

The equator marks the difference between the two parts of the earth, the southern hemisphere and the northern hemisphere.

Antarctica is the coldest,
windiest and driest
continent on earth.

Animals who live in cold countries have special adaptations that keep them warm. Penguins stay warm because of their thick feathers and blubber under the skin.

In the UK each year has 4 seasons Spring, summer, autumn and winter and each season last 3 months.